

The Future is YOUth

Welcoming young people from multicultural background to volunteering

cmj cmSport
centre for multicultural sport

Who we are

CMY is an organisation that elevates the voice & impact of young people from multicultural background

CMSport launched in 2021 to support sport to engage meaningfully with multicultural communities

Reflect our changing community

Understand your community

Beyond the benefits & barriers youth experience in sport volunteering, there are further considerations for multicultural youth

Strengths-based approach

- Use skills and passions
- Celebrate previous experience
- Integrate new practice
- Redevelop structures

A place to belong

- Dismiss stereotypes
- Promote fun
- Allow flexibility
- Reward recruitment

Connecting with Community

- Positive role modelling & representation
- Clear and friendly communication
- Link up with existing activities
- Build trust – engage leaders & institutions

Useful resources

- Profile.id
- Australian Multicultural Foundation or state-based services
- Centre for Multicultural Youth – knowledge hub
- ASC Inclusive Sport – diverse communities

What can you do?

- Recognise diverse communities have a holistic approach to life
- Appreciate diverse communities do not want to be patronised
- Build connections and seek input and involvement for your sport
- Be flexible and responsive to changes and cultural needs

Thank you

Simon Rodder

M: 0414 268 909

E: srodder@cmsport.com.au

